

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

His Majesty, through the Duke of Wellington, having conferred on him the rank of Colonel on a particular service, he sailed early in 1835 with a detachment of artillery, another of sappers, a proportion of seamen, and thirteen military and naval officers; with whose assistance Colonel Chesney accomplished the extraordinary achievement of transporting two iron steam vessels across Syria, and floating them in a perfect state on the Upper Euphrates, not very far from Aleppo. In the early part of the navigation thus commenced, a fearful hurricane carried the smaller vessel and twenty of her men to the bottom, Colonel Chesney and eight others being saved by swimming. The Commander, however, persevered; and in the remaining vessel he not only completed the surveys of the river Euphrates, Tigris, and Kareen, but continued the undertaking until it was turned over in the following year to the East India Company. His late Majesty warmly approved of the intrepidity manifested in continuing the service after the calamitous loss of one-half of his force, and the brevet rank of Major was bestowed on him by the King, which was followed by that of Lieut.Colonel by command of the Queen.

1 Sir De Lacy Evans served in India in 1807, 8, 9, and 10. Portugal, Spain, and France in 1812, 13, and 14. America, part of 1814-15. Belgium and France in 1815, 16, 17, and 18. In Spain in 1833, 36, and 37. Present during the operations against Ameer Khan and the Pindarries, capture of the Mauritius, part of the retreat from Burgos, action on the Hormaza (wounded), battle of Vittoria, investment of Pampelona, battle of the Pyrenees, investment of Bayonne (horse shot), actions of Vic Bignon and Tarbes battle of Toulouse (horse shot), battle of Bladenburg (two horses shot), capture of Washington, attack on Baltimore, operations before New Orleans (boarding and capture of American Flotilla)—action 25th Dec. wounded severely—unsuccessful assault, Jan. (wounded severely), battle of Quatre Bras, retreat of 17th of June, Waterloo (horse shot and one sabred), investment and capitulation of Paris. Continued on Staff of Allied Army of Occupation in France. Accepted under an allied Power (1855) command of an auxiliary British and Spanish corps of army by sanction and desire of the English Government, and by order of the King in Council. Acted, while so employed, in conjunction with the British forces (under Lord J. Hay), and through mediation of British authorities:—raising investments of San Sebastian and Bilbao, action of Arlaban, capture of port and castle of Passages. Defeated the enemy in general actions on the 5th of May, 6th of June, 1st of October (wounded) 1836; also 10th and 15th of March 1837. Attacked near Hernani, 10th March, by the elite of the Carlist army, 16,000 strong (about double the allied force), and obliged to retreat about one mile, but with a less loss in killed and wounded (600) than that of the enemy. Resumed the offensive the following month—capture of Hernani by escalade, 14th May—of Oyarzun, 18th May—of Yrun, by storm 17th May—of Fontarabia by capitulation, 18th May. These, and other minor affairs, were for the most part, severely contested, and cost (including those of the enemy) above ten thousand killed and wounded. Excepting occasional two or three stragglers, generally without arms, the Legion never lost (under his command) prisoners, artillery, or equipage, though utterly contrary statements repeatedly appeared at the time—while he took from the enemy 160 officers, 1000 men, thirty pieces of cannon, several entrenched positions, fortified towns and posts, with an extensive and most important strategical tract of the insurgent territory, including their main line of retreat, communication and supply. Thenceforth "The frontier was effectually closed against the entrance of resources to the Carlists, except by the small mountain passes, which are only accessible to foot passengers, or mules lightly laden"—(British Commissioners' Dispatch, Parliamentary Paper)—and thus did this auxiliary corps decisively contribute to the successful termination of the war. He holds the rank of Lieut. General in the national army of Spain, by licence of a British royal warrant; also, honoured by Her Majesty for these services with the Cross of Commander of the Bath, and by the government of Spain with the Grand Crosses of St. Ferdinand and Charles III. Received his Company, Majority, and Lieut. Colonelcy in the British service for conduct against the enemy. Sir De Lacy has received the War Medal with three Clasps for Vittoria, Pyrenees, and Toulouse. Commanded the 2nd Division in the Eastern campaign of 1854, including the battles of the Alma (wounded), Balaklava, and Inkerman, and siege of Sebastopol, comprising the repulse of the powerful sortie on the 26th Oct. 1854 (Medal and Clasp, G.C.B., Grand Officer of the Legion of Honor, and 1st Class of the Medjidie).

4 Major Catty served throughout the Kafir war of 1850-53 (Medal); acted as Field Adjutant to the Infantry at the commencement of hostilities in the engagement in the Boomah Pass, and on the following day when incapacitated by wounds, was several times nearly taken prisoner. Present at Fort White when that post was stormed by a large force of the enemy, who were repulsed by the small garrison under Major Mansergh. In May 1851 he was appointed Commandant of an irregular corps of Europeans, designated "Catty's Rifles," and during thirteen months of the most active period of operations this corps did good and gallant service, being engaged in nearly every patrol of the 2nd Division, the same being frequently acknowledged in General Orders, and the various reports of Commanders of Divisions. On the disbandment of "Catty's Rifles," he rejoined his Regt. (the 6th), and proceeded with the expedition against the paramount chief Krelli, and on his return to head-quarters was appointed to the command of Fort Grey, which he held till the cessation of hostilities, during which period, besides rendering the post perfectly defensible, wagons and cattle, which were on three occasions taken by the enemy and driven off, were recaptured by the garrison under Capt. Catty. Was twice severely wounded by musket balls in the Boomah Pass.

Townshend, served the Eastern campaign of 1854-55, including the battles of the Alma, Balaklava, and Inkerman, and siege of Sebastopol (Medal and Clasp, and Turkish Medal). Surgeon 83rd Regt. when a large detachment of the Joudpore Legion mutinied and attacked the barracks and station, and was officially thanked by the Officer commanding the Deesa field brigade in a letter which was read to the Regt. for having in the absence of the Officer commanding the detachment of the 83rd Regt. who was sick, "at the commencement of the attack so ably directed the convalescents upon the points most exposed to the attack of the mutineers." By the conduct of the detachment 83rd Regt. the lives of 130 European women and children were saved. Served at the siege of Ciudad Rodrigo, and at the assault of the Fort and of the place. Stood with General Craufurd when, in the assault, he placed himself on the crest of the glacis, where he fell mortally wounded. Reconnoitred for the line of march of the Division on the 17th of June from Piermont and the Ligny Road, crossing the Dyle at Ways, a line of march separate from the rest of the Army, and a movement of great delicacy, being performed in open day in presence of Napoleon's advance. On the 18th of June was allowed, in presence of the Duke of Wellington, to form the Division in an order of battle new and unusual, that of oblongs in echiquier, to meet the formidable masses of Cavalry seen forming in its front, and in this formation the Division resisted repeatedly, with perfect success, attacks of Cavalry and Artillery probably as formidable as any known in military history. On the 18th was struck on the side and disabled for some time; and had one horse killed and one wounded. Commanded at Calais, during the three years of the Army of Occupation, the establishment formed there to keep up the communication between the Army and England. The defeat of this insurrectionary host after eleven were killed on the spot and about thirty or forty wounded, was characterized at the time in the Imperial Parliament as having been the means of saving the whole of England from anarchy and rebellion. For this service each of the three officers of the Company received the thanks of the Queen and of the Commander in Chief, and also the thanks from the counties of Monmouthshire, Glamorganshire, and Breconshire. In April 1855 he was promoted to a Majority in the Turkish service, and served at Constantinople, Bayukdere, and the entrenched camp at Kertch during the winter of 1855 until the disbandment of the Anglo-Ottoman Force, and has received the 4th Class of the Medjidie and a Lt. 11	0	Thomas Maurice Quill ⁴ ..	19 Aug. 51	14 Aug. 53	1 General Wood served six years in the West Indies. Accompanied the expedition to Hanover in 1805. He next served the campaign of 1808-9, including the battle of Corunna. Subsequently at the siege of Flushing, he volunteered to storm the enemy's entrenchments, which he carried; and in November he was again sent to Walcheren to cover the embarkation of the troops when the island was evacuated. In 1810 he proceeded to the Mediterranean, where he served three years, and on being promoted, in 1813, to the Lieut.Colonely of the 85th, he joined the army in Spain. In 1814 he accompanied the 85th to America, and commanded it at the battle of Bladenburg, where he received four severe wounds, had a horse shot under him, and was obliged to surrender himself as a prisoner of war. He has received the War Medal with one Clasp for Corunna. On 14th March 1861 he was appointed Commander of the Forces in the Windward and Leeward Islands, where he served the usual period of five years.

War Services of the Officers of the Royal Marines.

1 General Menzies was attached to Lord Nelson's squadron off Boulogne, where he participated in all the desperate cutting-out affairs on the French coast against Buonaparte's flotilla. Commanded a detachment of Royal Marines landed at Port Jackson during an insurrection of convicts, in March 1804; by his promptitude and exertions the town of Sydney, and indeed the colony, was in a great measure preserved, and tranquillity restored. On the 22nd June 1806, he was in one of the boats of His Majesty's Ship Minerva, cutting-out five vessels from under Fort Finisterre; and on the 11th July following he was in the barge which, when 50 miles from where the frigate lay at anchor, captured by boarding the Buena Dicha Spanish privateer, of three times the force of the boat, after a sharp conflict: this attack was planned by General Menzies. Commanded and headed the Marines at the storming of Fort Finisterre, being the first who entered the Fort. In boats cutting out the Spanish vessel of war, St. Joseph, from the Bay of Arosa, where he landed and made prisoner the Spanish Commodore, who delivered to him his sword. Commanded the Marines at the capture of Fort Guardia. Slightly wounded cutting out the French corvette, La Moselle, from under a battery in Basque Roads. Taking of Fort Camarinus and gun-boats from under its protection. Repeatedly engaged in severe boat-actions, and against batteries. Right arm amputated. Received a sword of honour from the Patriotic Fund. Commanded the Royal Marine Artillery from 1838 to 1844. Is a KH., a Knight of Charles the 3rd of Spain, and a Knight of the Tower and Sword of Portugal.

2 General Coryton served as a Midshipman in the Royal Navy, on board the Severn and Hunter, from February 1800 until December 1802, and was engaged with the batteries at the Isle of Bas. In 1803 he entered the Royal Marines, and served in the Spartiate, off Brest, in the West Indies, and at Trafalgar, in which battle Captain Sir Francis Laforey states that

"Lieut. Coryton rendered himself conspicuous by his gallant conduct." Embarked in 1806 in the Argo, and served until 1809 on the coast of Africa, Canary Isles, West India, and Spanish Main; was landed in command of a detachment at Winebuh, on the coast of Africa, against a native army; at the storming and capture of a battery at Teneriffe, and attempt at cutting out an enemy's vessel (severely wounded). Engaged with the enemy on thirty occasions—several times hand to hand—and repeatedly wounded. General Burn stated that "Lieut. Coryton distinguished himself by a series of brilliant and successful achievements not surpassed by a subaltern of any Service." Mentioned for "conspicuous zeal and gallantry" at the siege and blockade of St. Domingo, and at the battering of Fort St. Jerome in 1809. At the cutting out of the French National Felucca Joseph, of seven guns and sixty-two men. At the City of St. Domingo, on the 9th March 1809, he commanded the gig, which, owing to her superior pulling, boarded the vessel fifteen minutes before the other boats; he maintained himself until their arrival, when they found him engaged single-handed with eight or ten of the enemy, refusing to surrender, although wounded in nine different places with sabres. After his return to England he was voted a sword from the Patriotic Fund. Has the War Medal with one Clasp.

In 1812 he was at the destruction of the batteries of Languetis, after charging with the bayonet and defeating a battalion of the French 52nd Regiment of the Line of a very superior force. In 1813 he was on board the Imperieuse at the attack on the batteries and tower of post D'Anso, after which he was landed and the enemy driven from their posts, which were destroyed, and a convoy of 29 vessels laden with ship timber for Toulon brought out; he was afterwards at the attack on Leghorn under Sir Josias Rowley.
